GUARDING THE CITY.

Municipal Departments Taking Active

Increased activity in divising safeguard against the approach of the cholora scourge is being manifested by the New York health authorities with each succeeding day. Noth ing that can possibly avert the threatenin danger is being overlooked, and the heads of the Health and other departments are in hourly consultation during the day.

The system of inspection, which was in-stituted last week, is now being carried out energetically in every part of the city, especially in the tenement-house districts, where unsantary conditions are in are likely to prevail, and the danger of infection is greater.

A large number of cases have been reporte by the inspectors, and the owners of the ob jectionable premises have been ordered to remedy all defective sanitary arrangements within twenty-four hours. More than a score of old wells have been discovered in that part the side of safety than to allow any person infected with the disease to remain at large and spread the contagion. In dischargin such duties policemen will have the full powers of sanitary officers, and will have the right to use their own discretion in all cases

The Fire Department and the Department of Street Cleaning are equally jon the alert and orders have been issued to all employees

The Quarantine officials are beginning to appreciate what hard work is, for almost every steamer that comes in now must be subjected to a most rigid inspection. It would not surprise Dr. Jenkins to find several cases of cholera within the next few days, Steamers Duc.

The steamers due are: From Hamburg the Normannia, Rugia and Stubbenhuk, on Sept. 3, the Suevia on Sept. 5, the Scandia, on Sept. 8, and the Wieland on Sept. 10. The Scandia and the Wieland belong to the Hamburg-American Packet line and are the last of the ships of that company to bring over immigrants. They sailed three days ago, and the Scandia has 872 steerage passengers.

From Bremen the Darmstadt is due Sept. 4, and the Elbe on Sept. 5. The Wassland, from Antwerp, is due here on Sept. 6 and La ourgogne, of the French line, which sailed from Havre on Aug. 27, will be here on Sept. 4. INFECIAL TO THE EVENING WOILD.!

WHITE PLAINS, N. Y., Aug. 31.—The train carrying President Harrison was hearly an hour late in reaching White Plains. Mr. Whiteleaw held was at the station two hours before, but returned to Ophir Farm, where he partook of a hasty breakfast and at once went back to the station in a surrey drawn by a spanking team of bays.

Mr. Held received several telegrams from Becretary Hallord and the railroad officials apprising him of the fact that the train was beining its schedule time.

A drizzing rain began falling about 9 o'clock which added to the disconfirer of the crowd which had been waiting around the depot for three hours before the President's car rolled in.

Mr. Reid sat in his carriage until the rain drove him to cover. Asked if he expected any prominent Republicans to see Mr. Harrison, Mr. Reid smiled and said that in all probability they would all be there.

"Do you look for Mr. Platt;"

"Oh, yes, Mr. Platt will be here."

Mr. Reid said that the President's letter of acceptance would probably not be given out for a few days yet. His own, Mr. Reid said, would not be made public for probably a moath after Mr. Harrison's This was, he thought, the usual course as established by the precedent set by Blaine and Logan.

was, be thought, the usual course as established by the precedent set by Blaine and Logan.

The President's special car, the "Traveller," arrived at the station at 9.50 o'clock. The platform was crowded with enthusiastic White Plains citizens.

The President emerged from the car and stood for a moment on the car platform, while the crowd gave three somewhat weak cheers. Mr. Harrison then alighted and snock hands with Mr. Heid, whose arst words were: "Now this way, Mr. President."

Mr. Harrison was followed from the car by Gen. Samuel Thomias, Chairman William Brookneld, Russell Harrison, Chairman William Brookneld, Russell Harrison, Chairman T. H. Carter, Secretary Elijah Hallord and Stenographer Tibbetts.

The first to grasp the President's hand after Mr. Reid was Bartholomew Gedney, of White Plains, who is ninety-one years old and has voted for seventeen Presidents. Mr. larrison then followed Mr. Reid to the carriage and helped to stow away two plethoric stabels under the Seat. The whole party then drove to Ophir Farm, a distance of three miles, arriving there about 10.30 o'clock.

Dr. Curtis hurriedly roused his mother and sister, who were saleep at the time, and telegrams were sent to relatives and friends conveying the news of Mr. Curtis's death.

To an Eversine Would reporter Dr. Curtis said this morning that he was unable to state what form of thesess caused his father's death. It might have been cancer of the stomach, chronic peritoritis or tuberculosis. Since his father's death, however, he had become convinced that cancer of the stomach was not the cause of death. What his discovery was that made him reach that conclusion he declined to state.

Dr. Curtis was also unable to state how the death certificate would be made out. On Dr. Donovan will devolve that task, and though that lady could not be found at her home this morning, it is believed the assigned cause of death will be tuberculosis.

The arrangements for the funeral which will be private, are as yet incomplete.
